Dear Mr President:

I am very concerned by the lack of leadership in US foreign policy. There are many serious world crises under way. North Korea is on the brink of intercontinental missiles. North Africa is generating the largest refugee problem of a generation. President Assad has taken up chemical attacks. The only apparent White House responses to these crises have been destructive. Funding has been cut to programs for women refugees. Refugee slots have been restricted. Vetting of drone attacks has been left to others. There has been no hint of a policy for North Korea or Syria.

Please assure me that you will begin to focus on foreign affairs.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our historic worldwide moral leadership.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
