Dear Senator Feinstein:

I am very concerned by the impulsiveness of the commander in chief. The rapid shift to bombing in Syria is the latest example but the poor planning for the attack in Yemen, the terrible loss of life in Mosul last week and his extremely scattered public comments all point to very little thought preceding military action. Authorization of acts of war is a very important role for the Senate.

Please assure me that you will strongly oppose giving this man arbitrary military licence.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our international leadership through humane and thoughtful foreign policy.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
