Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about illegal campaigning. Our political system is built around the principle of self-governance through majority rule, which requires an informed electorate. This has been achieved with laws governing the financing of campaigns. It now seems that besides receiving millions fewer votes than Ms Clinton and enlisting the aid of Russian hackers your campaign flouted these laws with your full knowledge. One egregious example of campaign finance violations is the mess around the cover-up of your affair with Ms McDougal. The story now includes a payment by Mr Cohen, a payment and subsequent quashing of the story by AMI, your various untruthful denials and now even a secret recording. Zero tolerance seems very appropriate for this blatant subversion of our election system.

Please assure me that you will enforce campaign finance law.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from the rule of the people.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
