Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about the rule of law. Criminals such as Messrs Papadopoulos, Manafort, Gates, Flynn, Cohen and Stone point to the remarkable corruption of your administration and I imagine most manage to not get caught. For the past two years you have had friends in Congress willing to block any serious airing of your corruption but Senate committees have been proceeding privately and now House Committees are ramping up for public hearings. I am concerned that you are trying to hide your own criminal activity through obstruction and intimidation of witnesses. There were your veiled threats on December third regarding Messrs Cohen and Stone - themselves charged with these very crimes on your behalf. There were your firings of Messrs Comey, Strzok and Sessions. Finally this week Mr Cohen was intimidated by you and your lawyer threatening his family into dropping plans to testify. These mob tactics have no place in our government.

Please assure me that you will resign.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from the rule of law.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
