Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about human pawns. Your tweet today confirmed advocating for ICE to kidnap people and release them in sanctuary cities such as here near San Francisco. Those arrested by ICE are not your personal pawns to move about as political rhetoric. ICE already shows little regard for their charges having dumped people on downtown streets at night without food or medical attention more like the Bhagwan Rajneesh's 1980's antics in Oregon than a government agency. Yet even ICE officials have balked (repeatedly) at your and Mr Miller's appalling plan, shedding more light on the depravity behind this week's purge of DHS. Like your continuing enthusiasm for kidnapping children from their parents this proposal shows that you regard others as inhuman and are capable of any atrocity.

Please assure me that you will resign.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our compassionate society.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
