Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about foreign corruption. As Mr Madison explained a republican system must remain vigilant against collusion with other countries. The emoluments clause tries to effect this and while no supreme court has had occasion to test it there are three such cases in the courts with one being granted a rehearing just this week. You have called out Mr Biden for an appearance of conflict while your daughter racks up Chinese trademarks even as the rest of the country loses Chinese trade. Your move this week to host the G-7 at your Doral property appears to be so blatant as to copy your autoimpeachment trick in Ukraine. Oddly in 2012 President Obama managed to find a different venue (Camp David) and even Mr Mulvaney allows that using your property was your idea while averring that absolutely no documentation on the decision will be made public.

Please assure me that you will adhere to the constitution.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our honest government.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
