Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about human rights. Systematic abuse of children for political ends was once only a foreign policy issue but for the past two years the US government has itself become an offender. The child separation policies first promulgated by you and General Sessions have so degraded US moral norms that any horror now seems possible. This episode has been remarkable for its incompetence, bad faith and evil intent. The incompetence was clear immediately in the failure to even have a system to track children with yet another attempt to satisfy Judge Sabraw with an accounting last month. The bad faith was apparent in that it was only delivered hours before his six month deadline. Even the political hacks you installed have balked at the evil intent in your arbitrary round ups leading to the firings of Nielsen, Alles, Grady, Vitiello and Mitnick and now the vain attempt of Acting Secretary McAleenan to resign without simply leaving the office empty. The thousands of young lives you have destroyed will haunt the country.

Please assure me that you will resign.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our human rights.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
