Dear Mr President:

I am concerned for transgendered people. A society is judged by the treatment of the most vulnerable whose rights representative government is meant to protect against the whims of the majority. Your administration has instead amplified bigotry against trans people starting with backing bathroom bills and overriding commanders to single out trans people in the military. The attacks have continued and besides the DoD and DoJ have come from HUD, HHS, DoE, DoL and Personnel Management. Oddly you refuse to own this program from your Domestic Policy Council insisting that you have no vicious intent. This then is something you should be investigating rather than nonexistent voter fraud, Ukrainian conspiracy theories and FBI investigations.

Please assure me that you will root the bigots out of your administration and restore the rights of the transgendered.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our egalitarian society.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
