Dear Mr President

I am concerned about spies. Spying on the US has become a dream job while the American government has often been kept guessing. Classification has been misused to hide your calls and meetings and ignored for careless tweets an obfuscating memo. Clearances have been forced through for relatives and pulled for spite. Notes and keys are carelessly left visible and meetings held in public spaces. Unlike President Obama's blackberry you have persisted with insecure lines, insecure servers and insecure associates. While foreign spies are well informed you have ignored congressional subpoenas and launched an ongoing criminal investigation to discourage FBI fact finding.

Please assure me that you will adhere to basic security laws.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our competent governance.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
