Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about a coup. Your letter to congress this week is terrifying. I know that letter writing can be an act of desperation in response to feeling powerless. Your letter also indicates that you are remarkably unhinged (Nero creeps to mind). The letter is largely a list of easily falsifiable conspiracy theories with ad hominem attacks on anyone coming to mind including denigrating prayer. I can only hope that you are correct and will soon be out of office and in prison. Frighteningly you appear to retain the support of many of the underqualified judges appointed over the past three years and every republican in congress. Together you appear set on overthrowing majority government.

Please assure me that you will resign.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our democracy.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
