Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about xenophobia. You have long worked to destroy various aspects of America from this year's invitation to an epidemic and three years of replacing competent administrators and judges with unqualified hacks to your decades long celebration of racism. Your blatantly biased apartment rentals brought lawsuits starting fifty years ago. A decade later you spent a fortune trying to have innocent black teenagers executed. More recently you have trotted out lies and conspiracy theories to discredit President Obama. Your success has been a boon to neonazis and has been based on constant and vicious attacks on immigrants. Finally, to distract from your catastrophic failures with covid-19 you have turned to demonizing Chinese. With the stresses of people dying and the economy collapsing I fear that this racist message will find a larger audience as is happening around the world and damage our hard fought level of egalitarianism for a generation.

Please assure me that you will champion tolerance.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our melting pot.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
