Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about oversight.

You illegally fired all eighteen inspectors general and Director Huitema of the Office of Government Ethics. The security directors at USAID were put on leave to enable Mr Musk illegal access to classified files and when Judge Englemayer blocked similar moves at Treasury your administration mulled ignoring the order or impeachment. All who were involved in the investigations around Jan 6 have been fired. Thereby the few remaining in oversight positions are forewarned not to do their jobs. You are also ending CFPB oversight of the financial sector, reform agreements for police departments and all civil rights prosecutions. This attack on accountability suggests bad intent.

Please assure me that you will act legally.

My pride in the US derives in part from our checks and balances.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
