Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about homelessness.

The budget reconciliation law you recently signed contains only the barest fig leaf of housing support with money for Opportunity Zones to help those like the Kushners with private equity stakes while dramatically cutting such social programs as Medicaid, public housing and SNAP which keep people housed and arresting the immigrants who build housing. Then last month you signed an order making the confinement of people on the streets easier much like your abhorrent treatment of those seized by the thugs at ICE with serious abuses documented by Senator Ossoff's office. This week you are even unleashing your ragtag federal enforcers on those living on the DC streets.

Please assure me that you will fund entitlements.

My pride in the US derives in part from our social services.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
