Dear Mr President:

I am concerned by the fear spreading from confusion over immigration policy. Fear is resulting from reports of deportations against someone filing a restraining order, someone holding a deferred action work permit and someone making a routine ICE check-in. Fear is resulting from reports of door to door sweeps and road check points and is resulting in people no longer checking in and seeking sanctuary in churches. This fear is damaging the country and making all of us less safe.

Please assure me that you will clarify enforcement criteria.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from a sense of safety.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
