Dear Mr President:

I am concerned to hear of an increase in hate crime. The threats against a Jewish center, the murder of an Indian man and possible increases in attacks on Hispanics, Muslims and gays all point to greater fear in our communities. Allowing this to continue will greatly damage this country.

Please assure me that you will drop your emphasis on the rare attacks by Muslims and immigrants and refocus on those which are most common.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from the safety of our communities.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
