Dear Mr President:

I am concerned by collusion with President Putin. His leadership has been destructive for the Russian middle class. It has led to violent border wars. It has tried to weaken NATO alliances. The strong ties between your administrations give the impression that you are acting in his interests rather than those of Americans. This perception is furthered by your apparent use of Russian agents in the election, the plans for Secretary Tillerson to skip a NATO meeting and the possible financial ties between Russia and many in your administration.

Please assure me that you will provide information about all international entanglements.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our independence.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
