Dear Senator Feinstein:

I am very concerned by the arbitrariness of the current commander in chief. The stunning about-face to bombing Syria is the latest example but the apparently poor vetting of an attack in Yemen, the terrible loss of life in the recent Mosul attacks and his extremely scattered public statements suggest very little thought is going into this military action. Authorization of military action is a very important role for the Senate.

Please assure me that you will strongly oppose granting arbitrary military authorization to this man.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our international leadership through humane and thoughtful foreign policy.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
