Dear Senator Feinstein:

I am concerned about perjury. Secretary Mnuchin, in an act reminiscent of today's plea deal by Mr Flynn, has been lying to congress and the country. He has claimed the Treasury had models backing from the budget reconciliation bill before the Senate. There is now ample evidence that there was not even an attempt to do this. These lies appear to be a treasonous attempt to damage the country with the largest transfer of wealth in our history. This attempt by the executive to mislead congress is consistent with Mr Flynn's guilty plea and undermines the ability of our government to function. Senator Warren has written to the Treasury department's internal investigator. A broader investigation seems warranted.

Please assure me that the Senate will investigate Secretary Mnuchin.

I am very proud to be a US citizen and a large part of that derives from our responsible government.

s Sincerely,
Eric Babson
