Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about fair elections. The FBI has continued its long carefully documented analysis of the Russian government's attempts to undermine Us elections. Time and again these warnings have proven to be correct from the deep connections to Flynn, Manafort and Gates and meetings with Kushner to the warnings about Porter. This week they provided a dozen detailed indictments and clear evidence that the upcoming elections are under threat. It is time to take this threat seriously and order an attempt to safeguard elections. Faith in our voting process is essential to the US system.

Please assure me that you will protect our elections.

I am very proud to be a US citizen and a large part of that derives from our government by the people.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
