Dear Ms Lee,

I am concerned about fair elections. Russian hackers and Cambridge Analytica have apparently managed to skew the American election system. Both attacks would be illegal and the former has been known about and under investigation for more than a year. The House investigation appears to have been a farce from beginning to end. The Honorable Devin Nunes began by sneaking around with files in the white house and triggering an ethics investigation by releasing classified information, continued by vetoing subpoenas while being recused and invoking the public interest rule to release a bizarre memo and is now finishing off with a report at odds with what everyone else seems to be finding. Even the president has just slapped sanctions on the Russians Mueller indicted for aiding his campaign. While entertaining, this farce is destroying my country.

Please assure me that you will vocally oppose this report.

I am very proud to be a US citizen and a large part of that derives from our fair elections.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
