Dear Senator Feinstein,

I am concerned about fair elections. Russian hackers, voter ID laws and Cambridge Analytica appear to be skewing American elections. The hacking has been known about and under investigation for more than a year. The House investigation appears to have been a farce from beginning to end. The Honorable Devin Nunes began by sneaking around with files in the white house and triggering an ethics investigation by releasing classified information, continued by vetoing subpoenas while being recused and invoking the public interest rule to release more classified information and is now finishing off with a report at odds with everyone else's findings. Even the president has just slapped sanctions on the Russians Mueller indicted for aiding his campaign. While entertaining, this farce is destroying my country and the most serious remaining investigation must proceed.

Please assure me that you will block the removal of Special Council Mueller.

I am very proud to be a US citizen and a large part of that derives from our elected government.

s Sincerely,
Eric Babson
