Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about corruption. The appearance of government corruption will weaken our country with residents less likely to trust, take pride or participate in government and more people taking their cue from the top to cheat and steal. When faith in the system is strong things are much more efficient since fewer resources are dedicated to repairing vandalism and policing against cheats. This perception is fostered by your opaque business dealings with hundreds of millions of dollars in untraceable cash condominium sales, your hush money to Ms Daniels and your hidden tax returns. It is furthered by hiring people like Me Kushner and Mr Broidy with his background in felony bribery apparently selling government access.

Please assure me that you will stop corruption.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our honest government.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
