Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about corruption. The pay-to-play swamp of Washington politics needs to be drained and removing Mr Mulvaney would be a good first step. The OMB Director was illegally jammed into the acting directorship of the BCFP five months ago over the objections of those working there. He has made no secret of his preference for bank lobbyists over the rest of us and has moved rapidly to dismantle the protections the office had implemented against such abuses as forced arbitration, payday lenders and college loan usury. This week he was a keynote speaker for his friends at the American Bankers Association conference. In this speech he openly advocated bribing legislators with campaign donations to further hobble the office he is supposed to be running and proudly admitted that bribery was the basis on which he ran his office for the past six years as a House member: 'If you're a lobbyist who never gave us money, I didn't talk to you'. This behavior is weakening our country.

Please assure me that you will fire Director Mulvaney.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our government by and for the people.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
