Dear Mr President:

I am very concerned about drug corporations. The current opium crisis has been called out as a serious issue for the federal government both by you and by Attorney General Sessions. This would be the ideal situation to use his task force to apply General Sessions' call for zero tolerance. Documents from the launch of OxyContin twenty years ago have recently been made public showing that many people associated with Purdue Pharmaceuticals such as several of the Sacklers, Mr Friedman, Dr. Goldenheim and Mr. Udell are guilty not only of stunning immorality, putting their own profits ahead of the lives of 100,000 Americans but of serious drug crimes next to which their misdemeanor plea bargains are a joke. Previous Presidents from Bush to Obama let the problem grow to our present crisis.

Please assure me that you will prosecute drug executives.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from the rule of law.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
