Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about crime. While Attorney General Sessions is declaring zero tolerance for children along the southern border (separating them from their parents, derailing their lives and leaving our country a more dangerous place) frightening crimes such as racial profiling by ICE agents and Sheriff Arpaio, obstruction of justice by Mr Libby and likely members of your administration as well as bribery and campaign fraud by Messrs Blagojevich and D'Souza are not just being overlooked but actively encouraged. You have cut back prosecution of such crimes and fired many of the prosecutors who were prosecuting them. You have pardoned people for such crimes. Finally you lead by example encouraging racism and corruption.

Please assure me that you will use pardons for justice.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from the rule of law.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
