Dear Ms Lee:

I am concerned about rigged elections. The President recently had a commission investigating nonexistent voting irregularities and the federal courts have scaled back actual oversight, allowing more corporate influence with Citizen's United and more suppression of minorities with Shelby. States have taken note with Texas, Georgia and North Carolina among others rapidly implementing tricks to reduce minority influence from gerrymandering and voter ID laws to broad purges of voter rolls. Georgia and North Carolina have taken this even further with the candidate in Georgia deciding which votes to count and campaign workers in North Carolina casting multiple mail in ballots - riling even erstwhile commissioner Kobach. Finally there are the moves in North Carolina (again) and now Michigan and Wisconsin to simply seize power from newly elected administrations. These subversions of democracy demand congressional investigation.

Please assure me that you will safeguard democracy.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our democratic government.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
