Dear Ms Lee:

I am concerned about corruption. The current administration is shockingly corrupt. Every Republican legislator has turned a blind eye to this fact and a good number have been running interference. In particular a parade of incompetent nominees have been confirmed to pollute our courts and administrative departments for decades. I very much look forward to your return to a majority in the House. This will finally enable a full investigation and documentation of the destruction being visited on the country. I worry that some Democrats (as the recent freshman letter hinted) will ignore these travesties and focus on finding common ground with those across the aisle. This would be an error. Very little will make it through this Senate and President. The House should pass legislation clarifying Democratic principles and work to hold those who would destroy our democracy to account.

Please assure me that you will document the Republican treason.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our democratic government.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
