Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about rogue asylum law enforcement. There are times when morality supercedes the law but you have been ignoring the law in the service of immorality instead. This week Judge Sullivan slapped down General Sessions' vicious move to arbitrarily restrict asylum by eliminating longstanding criteria. This ruling follows Judge Tigar's recent ruling quoting Judge Bybee blocking your repulsive plan to arbitrarily restrict asylum based on where people present themselves. Other immoral moves such as your plan to revoke temporary protected status for several groups, your plan to criminally prosecute people for entry prior to considering asylum, your plan to abuse people in administrative detention awaiting asylum decisions and your shocking plan to kidnap the children of many seeking asylum all point a stunning level of lawlessness. One can only hope that the courts will continue to block the horrible effects of your attempts and eventually manage to bring you to justice.

Please assure me that you will resign.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from the rule of law.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
