Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about white nationalist terrorism. Yesterday 49 people were gunned down in Christchurch. Attacks on people based on who they are... race, religion, sexuality... are particularly destructive to society, sowing fear in those targeted, bitterness in those egging on the attackers and helplessness in the rest of us. Sadly you frequently use the immense power of your office to attack immigrants and Muslims rhetorically. This has clearly contributed to the rising tide of violent white nationalist terrorism which has been documented statistically by the the FBI, the GAO and the Southern Poverty Law Center and is evident in especially frightening attacks or plans such as those of Messrs Hasson, Bowers and Sayoc. Your repeated failure with the most basic duty of your office to immediately condemn terrorist attacks is repugnant.

Please assure me that you will resign.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our civil society.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
