Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about child abuse. Your shameful policy of child abduction highlights the shocking immorality and incompetence of your administration. First you hid the policy, erasing any possible deterrent effect and leaving only its viciousness. Then it was rolled out with no plan leaving thousands of children lost in your system. After an outcry you ended the policy, but with no thought of mitigating the damage. In Judge Sabraw's courtroom you have consistently acted in bad faith. There was the claim that an agency with 80,000 employees couldn't possibly locate those kidnapped. There was the move to increase the paperwork required of parents causing months of delay. There was the move for ICE to entrap people collecting their children. There was the denial that there were abductions before the official announcement and then the move to oppose any help reuniting such children. This week this same large agency has claimed that it will take two years to even track down the estimated several thousand remaining cases.

Please assure me that you will resign.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our respect for human rights.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
