Dear Mr President:

I am concerned for immigrants. A society is judged by how it treats the weakest members and your revolting persecution of desperate immigrants debases ours. This week in a capitulation to your new puppeteer Mr Miller (who appears to be filling the role Mr Bannon once held) you fired much of your enforcement team. There are reports that the immoral and illegal attacks these people coordinated against immigrants which included separating families, shutting out asylees and lobbing tear gas into Mexico were not immoral or illegal enough to satisfy Mr Miller. These reports suggest that you wish to falsely claim everything is full and thereby reanimate your separation policy, block even more asylees from entry, further restrict the already byzantine asylum criteria and roll back birthright citizenship. Particularly ironic is the fact that the middle of the US is suffering from being too empty, birthrates are below replacement, populations are aging and those with any initiative are moving to the coasts. Immigration is the best hope to save these regions from further decline.

Please assure me that you will welcome all immigrants.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our melting pot society.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
