Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about treason. Russian attacks on our past two elections are undermining their legitimacy. Besides producing ludicrously pro-Russian policies this weakens the country as faith in government wanes. A large part of the special investigation into the 2016 interference is now available and details extensive moves to support your candidacy. Your treasonous response is troubling. You fired people in an effort to obstruct the investigation. You barred the release of the unredacted report. Your cabinet hides efforts to block future attacks from you. You wrote a cover story for your son's involvement. The lesson you have drawn appears to be that absent having been arrested you must be doing something right since now your lawyer is pushing Ukraine to interfere.

Please assure me that you will safeguard US elections.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our democracy.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
