Dear Senator Feinstein:

I am concerned about corrupt criminal traitors. It has long been clear that our president views his job as a means to enrich his family and friends and to indulge his sadism. Among the duties of Congress is the removal of such compromised officials. At this point this would include the criminal Justice Kavanaugh whose ethics complaints were dropped once Congress became the only body authorized to censure him. It would include General Barr as he ignores your subpoenas. Finally it would include the President a few of whose crimes were detailed for you by the Justice Department along with a reminder that Congress is also the only body authorized to censure him. This week (like most) we were reminded with threats of raids and shutting down most asylum claims and even direct attacks on some of your nonwhite colleagues that failure to impeach is threatening our society.

Please assure me that you will support Rep Green's articles of impeachment.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our honest government.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
