Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about bullying. You have promised much, accomplished little and broken many laws in the process. Repeatedly, your response to failure has been to attack the defenseless. This has included the poor with yet another attempt this week to complicate eligibility and cut SNAP benefits. It has included the sick with prolonged attacks on the ACA increasing the ranks of uninsured. But your easiest and hence most frequent targets have been immigrants. Besides kidnapping children and trying to authorize shooting people crossing the border the past month you have further cut the number of refugees admitted, retroactively changed the public charge rule and added a health insurance rule to block the poor.

Please assure me that you will help rather than hurt people.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our compassionate society.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
