Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about bribery. Today the Senate is trying you for bribing the Ukrainian president with the GAO weighing in on its illegality and your friend Mr Hyde's enthusiastic comments in the news. Your handling of tariff waivers, sales of hotel services to those seeking favors and secrecy around your taxes also point to a soft spot for bribes. The recent book 'A Very Stable Genius' recounts many clarifying anecdotes including your obsession over at least the past eight years with eliminating the 1977 Foreign Corrupt Practices Act to make bribery legal again.

Please assure me that bribery will be prosecuted.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our honesty.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
