Dear Mr President:

I am concerned for democracy. Of the thousands of disgraceful acts you have taken as President ranging from petty obvious lies to kidnapping children and assassination the House chose two of the most obvious as the basis on which to impeach. The cases are remarkably clear and simple yet they were laid out carefully in more than 100 pages as a show of respect for the rules and principles which have held our country together as the envy of the world for centuries. Your disgraceful six page (when double spaced) answer with its childish repetition of specious assertions suggests such contempt for the office you swore to faithfully execute that I fear a further slide toward autocracy.

Please assure me that you will follow President Nixon and resign.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our constitution.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
