Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about autocracy. Yesterday you delivered yet another unhinged diatribe. The discipline of reading fantastical prepared remarks for the State of the Union lasted only a few hours. You were quite clear that the subservience of the Senate suggests to you further attacks against our democracy beyond the obstruction and corruption into prosecution of political opponents. I worry that such moves are already under way since your corrupt call to Ukraine occurred the very day that Congress dropped the Mueller report. I can only hope that Representative Pelosi (our babysitter in chief) has come up with some new distraction for you.

Please assure me that you will resign

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our democracy.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
