Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about corruption. You entered office with such disdain for honesty that the ethics officer Director Shaub resigned. Yesterdays unanimous scotus bridgegate ruling contained the dispiriting sentence: 'Not every corrupt act ... is a federal crime.' This year the court also opined that they could not enforce congressional subpoenae against your administration making a mockery of your corruption impeachment and next week they will hear your plan to block even state investigations in a case brought by NY. Yesterday General Barr even dropped the Flynn prosecution after winning guilty pleas - a move more in line with your personal lawyer than a prosecutor. Together these give the impression that corruption in US politics is not just rampant but official policy.

Please assure me that you will fire General Barr.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from the rule of law.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
