Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about voting. Since your hire in 2016 to administer US laws after receiving millions fewer votes than Ms Clinton you have worked to minimize voting explaining on Fox and Friends that if enough people could vote 'you'd never have a Republican elected in this country again'. You started immediately with a Pence-Kobach commission, continued with manipulating the census and have become even more brazen over time. Much like your corrupt use of aid in Ukraine and moves to starve Puerto Rico of funds you are now threatening aid to US states: Michigan and Nevada this week. Their extreme need arises from your inaction and the resulting epidemic which is also the impetus for the voting change. While clearly illegal neither shame, the Senate nor the stacked courts are likely to step in.

Please assure me that you will leave state voting policies to states.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our democracy.

*Sincerely,
Eric Babson*
