Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about human rights. Today Mr Bolton's book has confirmed that you are happy to upturn millions of lives for your vanity project of keeping a job you show neither the will nor ability to perform. Your actions in China have long suggested that soya deals, boycotting Iran and trademarks for your daughter weigh more heavily with you than repression of the Uighur minority. Your dealings with North Korea, Saudi Arabia, Israel, Turkey, Burma and the Philippines like your withdrawal from the UN human right council all show similar disinterest in human rights. Today's rush to sign a bill sanctioning China the moment your quid pro quo with President Xi became public is all too similar to your affair with Ukraine.

Please assure me that you will resign.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our human rights leadership.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
