Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about embedded agents. You have long acted the part of a Russian asset with your refusal to act against their bounties on US soldiers only the latest reminder. You made open appeals for campaign help as a candidate, made Ambassador Kislyak among your first oval office guests and fought in court to keep notes from your frequent conversations with President Putin from congress while many from your campaign had ties and obligations to Russia. You have pulled troops out of Syria and now Germany, stalled support for Ukraine, undermined NATO and worked to add Russia to the G7. I look forward to hearing what the next administration finds you are being blackmailed with and where you seek foreign protection.

Please assure me that you will resign.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our independent government.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
