Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about blackmail. It is essential that the US president neither have nor appear to have interests conflicting with those of the nation. This would enable her to lead in good faith and outside actors to curry favors by helping the country rather than by bribery. Yesterday your hometown paper reported that you have vast personal debt and the companies you refused to put in a blind trust have interests in the Philippines and Turkey establishing that far from putting the US first your pandering to such dangerous tyrants as Presidents Maduro and Erdogan and drumming up business from Saudi and US entourages were desperate moves for personal gain.

Please assure me that you will resign to focus on your debts.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our government for the people.

*Sincerely,
Eric Babson*
