Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about racist violence. Shortly after your election you encouraged violent racists to gather here in Berkeley and soon after opined about very fine people rioting in Charlottesville. You have consistently convinced racists that you are an ally and brought their hatred out into our streets where the FBI has been warning of their potential to follow in the footsteps of Mr McVeigh and the Klan as domestic terrorists. Recently your desperation to remain in office (and thereby out of prison) has led you to encourage people to menace others in my hometown of Salem and Portland Oregon and to back their favorite conspiracy theories. Then last night in your debate with Vice President Biden you responded to a request to condemn such violence with a treasonous call for them to stand by, menace voters at the polls and prepare for violence once Mr Biden is elected.

Please assure me that you will resign.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our peaceful streets.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
