Dear Mr Vice President:

I am concerned about political violence. A group planning to kidnap Governor Whitmer was arrested yesterday. The FBI has long warned of a domestic terrorist threat. The president insists instead on speaking of Muslims and antifa. You do not object. The president speaks of very fine people and calls others to stand by. You do not object. The president calls for violence to protest election results and public health measures. You do not object. The president encourages vigilante-ism and calls for election monitors calling out Secretary Clinton, Mayor Schaaf and Governor Whitmer by name. You still fail to object.

Please assure me that you will condemn the president's white nationalism or resign.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from the rule of law.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
