Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about manslaughter. The election and a quarter million lives are lost. Still your campaign shambles along zombie-like with events planned around photos of tightly packed screaming crowds. A study from Stanford estimates tens of thousands infected and nearly a thousand dead as a result of your rallies alone. Clearly a great many more infections and deaths are resulting from the cavalier attitudes these events promote. Dr Reiner of CNN has likened your actions to murder though former prosecutor Gottlieb's charge of second-degree manslaughter may be closer. Since the lives of even your supporters mean so little to you I can not imagine where you would draw a line.

Please assure me that you will start now with Mr Biden's COVID plan.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our respect for human life.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
