Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about election violence. Tomorrow the last third of voters will cast their ballots and you continue to encourage extremists by inventing fraud and naming targets. Law enforcement groups from the FBI to state guard units and our city police are seeing hints that your irresponsibility may lead to violence and preparing accordingly. People you call out such as Dr Fauci and Senator Weiner here receive credible enough threats to require protection. Businesses have boarded up. I remember such fear with past elections - just never in the US.

Please assure me that you will call for a calm election.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our democracy.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
