Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about transition. After losing your long shot bid for reelection in the midst of your epidemic rather than act gracious for a few minutes and revert to golf you have opted to pretend the election is not over and drag large segments of the government down the rabbit hole with you. One goal appears to be scamming your supporters out of donations ostensibly for lawyers but more ominously you have also moved to replace much of the military leadership which hints at attempting a coup. Your legion legal difficulties will likely occupy you for some time but ending your term with obvious treason still seems foolhardy.

Please assure me that you will stick to grift.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our democracy.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
