Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about false equivalency. For much of my life political reporters have carefully cited views from both parties in every article in a bid to seem objective. This continued through the rise of trickle down (voodoo) economics, attacks on voting rights, dismantling of unions and health care and denial of gun statistics, evolution and climate change. Your ludicrous caricature of an administration appears to have finally broken the habit but I fear that with the ascent of President Biden this intellectually lazy notion of balance will return.

Please assure me that you will continue to remind us of the depths to which Republicans will stoop.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our morality.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
