Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about Georgia. President-elect Biden received millions more votes than you but only a few thousand more in Georgia and with the two Senate runoffs there continuing for the next two weeks voting remains in the news. While your tantrum about cheating, rigging and fraud is no doubt damaging faith in government and tempting incoming prosecutors to file treason charges it is also lining your pockets as possibly your third major windfall after your inheritance and television success the better to fight the aforementioned charges. Another side effect is to remind Georgia Republicans of the futility of voting.

Please assure me that you will continue to discourage Georgia voters.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from our Democratic ideals.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
