Dear Mr President:

I am concerned about morality. Today's welcome change brings a chance to begin to heal our society but also a temptation to ignore the past. Immoral and illegal acts from petty grift to threatening hundreds of thousands of lives by lying about climate or disease along with locking people up indefinitely and without their children based only on their place of birth have damaged the soul of our nation. All who participated must not only be immediately stripped of power but also held to account. Twelve years ago those who gambled away our economy were given a pass but the resulting gains were trivial compared to the damage many of the same people have caused since.

Please assure me that you will reckon with the past four years.

I am very proud to be a US resident and a large part of that derives from the soul of our nation.

Sincerely,
Eric Babson
